BOMBS AT THE WEDDING

(Associated Press Cable to The Star.)

MADRID, May 31.—The marriage of King Alfonso and Princess Ena was celebrated here today with great ceremony. While the royal wedding party was returning to the Palace from the wedding a bomb was thrown at Grand Duke Vladimir of Russia who was a member of the party. He escaped injury but several soldiers and horses of the guard were killed. The King and his bride were calm throughout the scene.

The Princess Ena, now the Queen of Spain hereafter to be known as Victoria Eugenie, is the only daughter of the Princess Beatrice, youngest daughter of Queen Victoria, and Prince Henry of Battenberg. Her full name is Victoria Eugenie Julia Ena. She was born October 24, 1887. She has three brothers. It is said that her marriage with King Alfonso is a pure love match. The young couple met about a year ago when Alfonso was in England. After the match was decided on the Princess was received into the Roman Catholic Church. The match is not very popular in England, largely no doubt, because of the young lady's conversion to Catholicism. It seems to be popular in Spain. The young king has certainly borne himself as a chivalrous lover.

The Princess accompanied by her mother left London May 24 for Spain. The departure of the princess from Victoria station was the occasion for an enthusiastic demonstration on the part of the Spanish colony while the platform, also, was crowded with English friends, who gave the future Queen of Spain a hearty send-off. King Edward, Queen Alexandra, the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and other members of the royal family and the staff of the Spanish embassy were among those present. The King conducted Princess Ena to the royal saloon car, which was filled with flowers. At about the same time King Alfonso accompanied by Premier Moret, the Minister of War, Lieutenant-General de Laigue, and a brilliant suit of officials and court dignitaries, left Madrid for the frontier, where he met his bride. Vast crowds witnessed the King's departure, which inaugurated auspiciously the events attending the royal marriage. The king arrived at Irun the frontier, at daylight the next morning and the bride reached there an hour later. The station at Irun was elaborately festooned and decorated with Spanish and British flags. Spanish peasants playing flutes and tambourines and dressed in their quaint local costumes welcomed the bride, the municipality offered her homage and a regiment of the Castilian Guards acted as her military escort. The royal train returned to Madrid at 5 o'clock Friday morning, arriving at the Prado Palace at 6:30 Friday night. A special railroad station, hung with tapestries and displaying the royal arms, had been erected near the palace. Thence the royal halberdiers conducted the princess to the Prado Palace, where she awaited the marriage ceremony. Her wedding dress was made in Madrid the remainder of her tresson in Paris.

Estates Go To Ruin

If their management be not placed in competent hands. The trust company is invaluable to the person who through lack of experience or any other reason is unable to administer his own affairs in such way that his interests may be best served. A trust company collects rents manages estates and is empowered to act in any and every fiduciary capacity.

ROLPH SCORES A COUP

MANAGER OF THE CROCKETT REFINERY SCORES AGAINST HIS COMPETITOR.

The Examiner of May 21, says: Do you use sugar? Then you will enjoy hearing how the sugar trust tries to put its competitors out of business and how a California sugar company has the laugh on the combination of which H. O. Havemeyer is the head. Some time ago, when growers of sugar cane in the Hawaiian Islands had the prices of raw sugar fixed for them by the all-powerful trust and the trust did all the refining and fixed the prices, all was well for the magnates, but a small cloud has lately arisen in the sky, which has aroused the crushing instinct of Havemeyer and his associates.

The California and Hawaiian Sugar Company, formed of San Francisco and Hawaiian capitalists, most of whom are interested in sugar raising in the islands, refused to accept the arbitrary price of raw sugar set by the trust and determined to open the refinery at Crockett which had been closed since the last time that a local company tried to break into the exclusive business of the trust.

The new concern was not looking for a war in prices and delivered its product at the same rate as prevailed in the trust ruled market. It secured its share of orders, but even the comparatively small amount of trade which was di-

SUBSIDY FOR PACIFIC SERVICE

POSTOFFICE APPROPRIATION TO HAVE PROVISION INCREASING OCEANIC'S COMPENSATION.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The Postoffice appropriation bill will take care of the Oceanic service in the manner provided by the ship subsidy bill, which passed the Senate but apparently is sidetracked in the House. The Senate Committee on Postoffices and Post Roads, believing that there is no chance for the shipping bill to pass at this session, has taken from that measure this subsidy provision: From a part of the Pacific Coast of the United States via Hawaii and the Samoan Islands, to Australasia, on steamships of the United States of not less than sixteen knots speed for a service once in three weeks at a maximum compensation not exceeding $217,000 a year in addition to the compensation now provided under the existing contract for ocean mail service between this country and foreign ports.

Under the shipping bill there were eleven routes subsidized but the Oceanic service is the only one in existence that the committee says absolutely demands at this time compensation in addition to that provided by existing contracts.

The committee expects to conclude its consideration of the bill Thursday next and report it to the Senate.

SUIT FOR LAND NEAR THE MOANA

TERRITORY WANTS A STRIP BETWEEN THE HOTEL AND THE HUSTACE PLACE.

The Territory has begun suit to secure possession of the strip of land leading to the beach from the Waikiki road, between the Moana Hotel and the residence of Frank Hustace, by suit against Hustace, the Hotel Company, Alexander Young and the S. C. Allen estate. The suit, which was brought by Deputy Attorney General Milverton in the name of Superintendent of Public Works S. C. Holloway is to abate alleged nuisances in the shape of fences which the defendants are said to have placed obstructing the alleged street.

It is claimed that the street was set apart by Kalaheka in 1861 and was opened as a street then, and that in 1893 fences obstructing the public right of way to the beach were erected. The prayer of the Territory is for the re-

MORGAN AND THE YACHTS

JAMES F. MORGAN DID A GOOD DEAL OF RELIEF WORK FOR THE YACHT RACE.

The following letters which were forwarded to T. W. Hobron by James F. Morgan in San Francisco show that steps were taken by Mr. Morgan to induce San Francisco yacht owners to enter their yachts in the coming race. The La Paloma will probably leave San Francisco for San Pedro tomorrow. In a letter to Mr. Hobron from Captain Sinclair captain of the yacht Lurline, Captain Sinclair explains why he did not go to San Francisco with his yacht but remained at San Pedro. After he put to sea he found that the yacht was leaking and had to go on the dry dock. He however went to San Francisco by rail as Mr. Morgan's letters show.

Hawaiian Relief Bureau, 424 Scott St., San Francisco, Cal., May 24, 1906. T. W. Hobron, Esq., Honolulu.

Dear Sir: Mr. Macfarlane, Mr. Sinclair and myself, have been trying to see if we could induce the San Francisco yachtsmen to enter a boat in the coming race.

Yesterday we had a meeting with Mr. Hammedieu, secretary of the Pacific Inter Club Yacht Association and that things might reach an understanding, I wrote him a letter a copy of which I enclose.

Mr. Macfarlane asked me to sign it on behalf of the Hawaii Yacht Club.

RICH TIME FOR FRISCO CONTRACTORS

J. BELSER RETURNED THIS MORNING FROM A VISIT TO THE STRICKEN CITY.

J. J. Belser returned today from a brief trip to San Francisco. He arrived in San Francisco immediately following the disaster. He went up ostensibly for a vacation trip. Belser reports that the opportunities for contractors are very great in that city. Contracts are being turned down constantly by the contractors. The chief difficulty is lack of labor. High wages are being paid day laborers and as for teams, the wages far in excess of reason, are being paid. It is not likely that the local firm of Lord and Belser will go to San Francisco to try and do any work but the matter will probably be considered by them.

Belser says that the insurance companies are causing the greatest trouble and annoyance to the people who held policies with them. In many cases the San Francisco insurance agents are refusing to give out any information and are referring insurers to the main offices, some of which are in Europe. Some of the policies specified that claims should be filed within sixty days and upon a certain form of application. But the agents are refusing to supply the insurers with such blank form so that the application can not be made out.

Hearth is making a remarkable record in aiding the people in San Francisco. He has, Belser says, thought of many means of aid that other persons have not suggested. Hearst has now undertaken to force the insurance companies to take some steps, looking toward the payment of the claims against them.

SPECIAL TREASURY COUNSEL HERE

REPRESENTS THE GOVERNMENT IN THE MILLION DOLLAR SAKA CASE—TESTIMONY TO BE TAKEN

B. A. Levett, who arrived this morning by the Manchuria to represent the United States Treasury Department in the taking of evidence in the taking of evidence in the Saka case before Judge Dole, the San Francisco Examiner of May 24 thus speaks:

B. A. Levett, special assistant counsel for the Treasury Department, called at the Custom House yesterday to confer with Collector Stratton with reference to the duty on sake, or Japanese rice wine. He is on his way to Honolulu to take testimony upon the issue as to

HAWAIIAN SECURITIES ARE O. K.

WILLARD E. BROWN SAYS THAT HAWAIIAN SECURITIES ARE STANDING UP WELL IN FRISCO.

Willard E. Brown of Halstead & Co. brokers, who went up to San Francisco some time ago to look over the financial conditions there since the fire returned this morning on the S. S. Manchuria. He reports a very bright outlook for the future there and says that he was amazed at the spirit the people there show since the great disaster. "Hawaiian securities in San Francisco are standing up well," said Mr. Brown today, "and I believe that they will continue to do so. People up there who are holding them consider them their best investment since they have had their incomes cut off. Very few I believe will be brought back here to be handled. They are standing up well and, I believe that they can for the most part to taken care of there."

"There has not been a drop in any values there to amount to anything and the reason lies in the fact that the banks are under every thing and are holding up the situation. For instance a man comes in and tells a bank that he is unable to meet certain obligations. The banks tell him to go ahead and not worry but let them do it. In this way men are not forced to place what stocks they have on the market and thus cause a depression in their price."

"The spirit of the people is wonderful. Men who had built up a business working for the past twenty years and who were about to leave for Europe with their families have cancelled all bookings on transatlantic lines and have settled down in the harness to build their business up again."

"Real estate values in many instances are higher than ever. Only a few of the timid ones are getting out. The people who have gone to Oakland are advertising that they have done so only temporarily and will move back to San Francisco as soon as it is possible."

"Safe deposits for the most part were intact. I saw a line of people for many blocks, waiting to get into the deposit boxes of the California Safe Deposit Company. I overheard many of these say that they were going to move their securities to Oakland, but when they got into their papers and found that they were all right they simply left them with the company."

"Yes San Francisco will rebuild and will do so without any great depression of San Francisco securities as the banks are holding them up. San Francisco has a wonderful population."

CARTER ON DECK TODAY

THE GOVERNOR RETURNS IN EXCELLENT HEALTH AND WILL GET ON THE LID TOMORROW.

Governor George R. Carter returned this morning on the Manchuria, in the best of health and spirits, and tomorrow he will take hold of the administration again. The governor was accompanied by Mrs. Carter, who has been with him during his trip to the coast, and who is also in excellent health. Carter expressed himself as feeling "fine as a fiddle" and very glad to be back again in his home land.

"I am delighted to get back to the country in which I was born," was the first thing the Governor said, "and am more than ever impressed with the opportunities for making the country better and more prosperous. I am feeling well and strong again, and ready to take up the duties of office and do what I can for the country."

The governor was asked as to the experiences of himself and Mrs. Carter in the great earthquake, during which they were in the Hotel Del Monte. "We went back to bed after the quake," said the governor. "No, it did not throw us out of bed, though it wakened us, of course. It didn't seem at first so terrible to us—I suppose we did not appreciate its great force and significance. We went back to bed after the shock, without realizing what a disaster it was, and we told others who were frightened and who had never been through an earthquake, what it was."

"I do not think the disaster will have a bad effect on us. San Francisco will rapidly become a big city again. It is a remarkable and lucky fact that the big waterfront warehouses and the railroads suffered little, and they will keep up commerce between San Francisco and other ports."

The governor left his children behind here when he went to the coast and he had the pleasure of finding them in fine health when he returned this morning. He has been to Southern California and other parts of the Golden State, on a trip prescribed by his physician, after a very severe attack of grip, and though the vacation and rest were rudely interrupted by an earthquake that might have spoiled any one's vacation, he has greatly recuperated.

Late this morning Governor Carter called at the Executive chambers, but he left Atkinson still the acting governor. Several of the department heads called to pay their respects. Tomorrow, as is stated by an official advertisement published today, the transfer of authority will take place, and Atkinson will become merely Secretary of the Territory.

This afternoon the governor was a visitor with Surgeon General F. M. Rixey, U. S. N., at the Moana Hotel. General Rixey is a through passenger on the Manchuria, on his way to Hong-kong.
